sculpture, looking for three-dimensional structures, with simple shapes, precisely defined. Elements developed from the universal language of geometry.

His works evolve looking for a harmonious final set in which the symmetry of the empty spaces is very important, as well as the balance of the visual weight of the work as a whole. Sharp edges and glossy surfaces create soft light contrasts as well as endless play of volumes. If you want to make an appointment and discover more works by the artist, please contact us:
